Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery

"I had suffered from indigestion, and only those who have suffered from it know what it really is," writes Mrs. M. J. Fagan, of 1613 East Genesee Street, Syracuse, N. Y. "I had severe attacks of headache and dizziness with cold hands and feet; everything I ate distressed me, bowels were constipated, and I was growing very thin and nervous. I cannot half express the bad feelings I had when I commenced taking Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. I took nine bottles of the 'Discovery' and several bottles of the 'Pellets.' I commenced feeling better with the first bottle, and kept on improving. Now I am so greatly improved in health my friends often speak of it. I most heartily recommend those medicines to all suffering as I was."

DEATH AND RUIN

Seven-Story Building Hurlled Into the Air By Chemical Explosion.

LIKE AN EARTHQUAKE

New York the Scene of Another Appalling Fire Disaster, In Which Many Are Caught.

The Lower End of Manhattan Shaken As By An Earthquake By the Shock.

New York, Oct. 30.—The long list of fire horrors that have occurred in and around the city of New York, a district that includes the Royal Hotel fire, the Park place disaster, and the Windsor and Hoboken fires, was added to yesterday afternoon by a fire and explosion that shook the lower end of Manhattan like an earthquake, hurled a 7-story building into the air and set fire to two blocks of buildings with a loss of life that only the efforts of hundreds of men who were rushed to the work of digging away the ruins as soon as the fire was extinguished will reveal.

The big building of Tarrant & Co., makers of medicinal specialties, standing at the northwest corner of Greenwich and Warren street and filled with chemicals, took fire in some way that may never be known. One fire company had just arrived when a terrific explosion occurred and threw the entire engine's crew down the stairs.

The firemen, realizing the danger of their position, rushed out of the building to the street. The explosion had filled the street in front with a shower of falling glass and small debris, which sent the crowd which had already gathered, on the opposite side of the walk, fleeing for safety.

In the meantime other engines had responded to the alarm and the firemen were busy rescuing people from surrounding buildings. Firemen had already taken many girls down the only fire escape upon the buildings, and more persons had been carried down the escapes of the Home Made restaurant next door, and the buildings adjoining upon Warren street.

The second explosion occurred about five minutes after the first. From the accounts of witnesses, the building seemed to leap into the air, and in a moment masses of brick wall, timbers and stone were falling into the street. The force of the explosion tore away the walls of the big commission store houses fronting on Washington street and caused them to collapse, falling all at once in a mass of timbers, boxes and barrels, from which the flames which burst out from the Tarrant building like the belching of a cannon, at once broke forth.

Across Warren street to the opposite buildings the flames leaped, setting them all afire at once, the force of the explosion demolishing windows and all wooden structures about the house. In a moment Warren street was choked up with a mass of debris and the whole place was aflame. The great explosion was followed by half a dozen more scarcely less intense, and by a countless number of smaller ones.

The second explosion carried destruction in every direction. That it did not cause a wholesale loss of life was due to the fact that almost 10 minutes' warning came after the first cry of fire, a cry that was real warning to people who knew the character of the chemicals in the burning building, and fully 5 minutes occurred between the first and minor explosion, which warned every one within hearing, and the second one. LONDON GOES WILD

Reception of City Imperial Volunteers Degenerates Into a Debauch.

UNBRIDLED SATURNALIA

List of Casualties Attending the Celebration Exceeded Those of the Corps' Entire Engagements.

A Repetition of Making Night Without the Excuse of That Celebrated Orgy.

London, Oct. 30.—The list of casualties among the welcoming multitude which greeted the returning South African volunteers yesterday, was longer than that of the whole corps in its 26 engagements in South Africa. Partial returns from the hospitals and police stations indicate that more than 200 were badly hurt, eight and possibly 10 being killed outright.

There were 4,000 police and 22,000 troops on duty along the line of march but they were unable to manage the crowds. Women and girls fainted and were trampled under foot. Stands overloaded with sight seers fell in. Twelve persons out of the 30 who were riding on top of a mail wagon whose wheels gave way, had their bones broken. Two children were killed. A man who was leaning over the parapet of the roof of a 4-story building lost his balance and fell upon a group of women, killing one and hurting two others, but walked away himself apparently uninjured.

Many of the soldiers on the line of march were hurt in combats with the crowd. Altogether London had a wild day with much fun and, unfortunately, a deal of grief in many households because of the accidents.

Indeed, the only surprising feature is that the casualties were not twice as numerous, for, when night fell the streets of London would have done credit to the commune. It was a scene of unchecked saturnalia that met the eye. Fighting and swearing throngs fought vainly among themselves for the right of way.

Half an hour was needed to make a hundred yards along the Strand, and the feat could only be accomplished at the risk of limb or life. The few isolated policemen in evidence were borne helpless upon the tide of patriotic enthusiasm, whose invariable characteristic was drunkenness, partial or complete.

The night was a repetition of "Making Night" without the redeeming excuses of that celebrated orgy. London was turned over to the worst elements of its population. Women were insulted, kissed or thrown down with impunity in street fights. Pursued at the sweet will of inebriate brawlers from the sidewalk, they streamed along historic thoroughfares shouting, sobbing and brandishing peacock feathers with insane depravity. Many of them offered no exception to the rule of drunkenness. Babes in arms could frequently be seen. Countless different uniforms of soldiers of the empire, regulars, volunteers and colonialists, added vivid color to an extraordinary spectacle, the like of which was never witnessed in any American city.

In justice to the heroes of the demonstration, it should be said that few of them participated in the night's celebration. Indeed it seemed to be almost forgotten in the general desire to take advantage of the opportunity of unbridled debauch and the defiance of all law, order and decency.

After an eight hours' march, broken by a sermon at St. Paul's cathedral by Bishop of Stepney and a speech by Lord Mayor Newton at the Guild hall, the volunteers sat down to a course dinner at the headquarters of the Ancient and Honorable Artillery of London where Lord Wolseley and many other notable persons received and addressed them.

The members of the corps then separated. They had to muffle themselves in their overcoats and to use other disguises in order to avoid recognition by the crowds. As it was several were nearly pulled to pieces by the rough embraces and handshakings of drunken men.

Will Local Responsibility.

London, Oct. 30.—Lord George Hamilton, secretary of state for India, has received the following dispatch dated Oct. 22, at Pao Ting Fu, from Sir Alfred Gaselee: "I have appointed an international commission to inquire into the murder of the missionaries and railway officials with a view of locating the responsibility." In a dispatch dated Pao Ting Fu, Oct. 24, General Gaselee says that in pursuance of instructions from Field Marshal Count von Waldersee, the British troops will return to Peking and Tientsin, reaching their destinations about Nov. 6.

Charge of Fraud Entered.

Akron, O., Oct. 30.—Mrs. Sophronia Ritchie has brought suit against Charles Ealrd and John B. Wright executors of the will of the late Thomas W. Cornell for the recovery of $500,000 in stocks which she alleges the executors refuse to turn over to her and for $100,000 damages. Mrs. Ritchie alleges in her petition that the will was prepared without Mr. Cornell's knowledge and that the latter's signature was secured to it by fraud.

A SHERIFF'S RUSE

Probable Lynching Averted By Officer's Timely Action at Brazil.

THE CROWD HAD FORMED

Intimation Of An Intent to Lynch Samuel Harmon Incites Clay County's Sheriff to Action.

He Spirited His Prisoner Out a Back Way and Took Him to Terre Haute.

Brazil, Ind., Oct. 30.—By a shrewd movement of Sheriff Klinger and his deputies a lynching was averted here in connection with the recent tragedy. The sheriff received word of the formation of a crowd at the new fair grounds to march in force to the jail and demand the keys to the cell of Samuel Harmon, who murdered Charles Reynolds Sunday morning. The sheriff and his deputies rushed Harmon out of the rear cell and placed him in a closed carriage and drove him to Cloverland, where he was placed on an interurban car and taken to the Vigo county jail for safe keeping. The feeling here is very bitter against Harmon.

A SLASHER CAUGHT

Thomas Mills Attacks Brother-in-Law and Wife at Noblesville.

Noblesville, Ind., Oct. 30.—Thomas Mills, brother-in-law of Edward Bradford, went to the latter's house and, calling him out, attacked him with a large knife, slashing him across the neck, making a wound 10 inches long and barely missing the jugular vein. Bradford's cries for help brought his wife to the scene, when Mills turned on her, cutting three gashes in her arm. Bradford's wounds are probably fatal. Mills attempted to escape, but was captured after a long chase. He refuses to talk of the affair, but it is known the men have not been friends for some time.

Will Clean Up the Town.

Brazil, Ind., Oct. 30.—As a consequence of the killing of Charles Reynolds by Samuel Harmon Sunday morning at a rough place kept by Mrs. Harmon, City Marshal Prince has instructed the police force to shut up every house of the kind in the city and rid the town of such characters.

Fell to His Death.

Laporte, Ind., Oct. 30.—Eugene Drew, was fatally injured here while attempting to board a moving freight train. He slipped and fell, his left arm being caught under the train. He was removed to the Holy Family hospital, where his arm was amputated, but he did not recover.

Aged Man's Suicide.

Attica, Ind., Oct. 30.—Richard Love, 70 years old, committed suicide yesterday by shooting himself in the stomach with a shotgun. His body was found in the cellar at his home. Despondency over ill health caused the deed.

FORECAST OF WEATHER

MORE SHOOTING

A Sequel to the Recent Affray at Eaton.

Hartford City, Ind., Oct. 30.—Bartley Wilhelm of Eaton, formerly a member of the Hartford City police force, was arrested in this city for shooting with intent to kill Hector DeGreeve, a flattener in the American Window Glass company's No. 32 plant here. The shooting took place at the factory, three shots being fired. The trouble arose at the factory. DeGreeve is an L. A. 300 flattener, and Wilhelm belongs to the Flatteners' association. He is the father of Louis Wilhelm, the Eaton blower, who was shot last week, who had a relapse, and who is reported to be in a serious condition.

Claims Self Defense.

Terre Haute, Ind., Oct. 30.—Parley McDonald, the Fontanet miner, who was shot by Quince Foster several days ago, is dead. Foster is in jail here and refuses to talk, further than to say that he fired the shots in self-defense.

President Castro, who leaned from a balcony on the second floor of the government house had one of his legs broken. Mr. William Henry Doynton Haggard had a narrow escape, the second floor of the British legation having fallen upon him and buried him in the debris.

Didn't Install the Friar.

Manila, Oct. 30.—Archbishop Chappelle, who recently left Manila, accompanied by several friars, for the northern districts of Luzon, under conditions that aroused the suspicions of the Filipinos here that he intended to establish the friars in parishes there, was warmly welcomed on his arrival at Dagupan. As a long time had elapsed since an opportunity for baptism has been presented, more than 2,500 persons have been baptized. In view of the protest of the parish against the appointment of a friar as parish priest, Mr. Chappelle did not attempt to make it.

Done In Self Defense.

Chicago, Oct. 30.—The jury in the murder case of Henry Crawford for killing Wesley J. Constant last May, returned a verdict of acquittal. The plea of Crawford was self-defense. Constant had eloped from St. Louis with Crawford's wife, having first borrowed the money from Crawford for the trip.

RECORD ON THE TRUSTS

Republicans Alone Responsible for Legislation Against Them.

Every line of legislation now on the statute books of the United States directed against trusts and unlawful trade combinations was placed there by the Republicans.

That there is not more stringent law against them is the fault of the Democratic party.

The last occasion on which the parties as represented in congress went on record on the trust question was on June 1, 1900.

On that day a final vote was taken on a constitutional amendment to grant congress power to "define, regulate, prohibit and dissolve trusts, monopolies and combinations, whether existing in the form of corporations or otherwise."

It requires a two-thirds vote of congress to submit a constitutional amendment to the state legislatures for ratification.

The question to so submit it was lost by a vote of 154 yeas to 132 nays.

Of the yeas 149 were Republicans and only five were Democrats. The five were Campbell of Montana, Naphe and Taylor of Massachusetts, Scudder of New York and Sibley of Pennsylvania.

Of the 132 nays only two were Republicans, Lund and McCall.

Richardson, Lantz, Sulzer, Ruppert, Salmon and all the other professional "trust killers" voted nay. They declined to give congress the power to grapple with the trusts. The Democrats indulged in spasms of virtue for two days denouncing the trusts and then voted to continue them.

In one of Mr. Bryan's recent speeches he gave the Republican remedy as the final one he would adopt in case he was elected and all other means failed.

In other words, Mr. Bryan admits the value of the Republican idea, but wants to try other measures first. He has not said what those measures are to be.

Some trusts operate all over the country; others, like the New York Ice trust, operate in a single city. The requisite power to reach each and all and bring them within the federal law was denied by a margin of 36 votes, all Democratic.

Denouncing is one thing, doing is another. Mr. Bryan's trust denunciations, in view of his party's record, promise no better than the prophecies he made four years ago, and as a prophet Mr. Bryan has not succeeded.

Thousands Have Kidney Trouble and Don't Know It.

How To Find Out.

Fill a bottle or common glass with your water and let it stand twenty-four hours; a sediment or settling indicates an unhealthy condition of the kidneys; if it stains your linen it is evidence of kidney trouble; too frequent desire to pass it or pain in the back is also convincing proof that the kidneys and bladder are out of order.

What To Do.

There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy, fulfills every wish in curing rheumatism, pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passages. It corrects inability to hold water and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often during the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases.

If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists in 50c. and $1. sizes.

You may have a sample bottle of this wonderful discovery and a book that tells more about it, both sent absolutely free by mail, address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper.

REPUBLICAN POLICY.

1896:—OPEN THE MILLS.
1900:—KEEP THEM OPEN.

THE Stevenson rally was a disappointment to the Bryan crowd. They expected 10,000 people. They have learned that Adlai is not a drawing attraction.

IN 1864 Adlai Stevenson was opposed to Lincoln and the war. He was with the party then that declared the war a failure and gave encouragement to the men who were firing on the American flag. He is doing the same thing today.

DO THE farmers of Jackson county think it would be in their interest to take the tariff off of wool so as to permit large importations of wool from South America and Canada to come into competition with American wool? If you do not, you should support McKinley. Bryan is an open advocate of free wool.

F. M. GRIFFITH not only voted against the anti-trust amendment to the constitution during the last congress but as state senator from Switzerland, Ohio and Dearborn counties in 1891 he voted against the anti-trust bill that was introduced that session. The bill was number forty-six, and was introduced by Senator Shockney, a republican.

To honest money democrats no persons are more offensive than Towne, Tillman and Altgeld, and the bringing of these men into Indiana in the closing days of the campaign has done much to line up gold democrats for McKinley. Adlai Stevenson who is in Indiana this week belongs to the same financial school, and John Frenzel of the gold democratic committee is pleased that the democratic managers were so thoughtful.

POLITICAL BREVITIES.

Judge J. Frank McCrea and E. E. Dougherty spoke at Brownstown to a good crowd Monday night. Mr. Dougherty spoke first and made a good speech. He was followed by Judge McCrea who spoke at length discussing the issues in a clear and logical manner, making one of the best speeches made before the Brownstown club this year.

Does it Pay to Buy Cheap.

A cheap remedy for coughs and colds is all right, but you want something that will relieve and cure the more severe and dangerous results of throat and lung troubles. What shall you do? Go to a warmer and more regular climate? Yes, if possible; if not possible for you then in either case take the ONLY remedy that has been introduced in all civilized countries with success in severe throat and lung troubles, "Boshee's German Syrup." It not only kills and stimulates the tissues to destroy the germ disease but allays inflammation, causes easy expectoration, gives a good night's rest, and cures the patient. Try ONE bottle. TO TRUE DEMOCRATS

An Appeal Directed By Hon. Don M. Dickinson.

BRYAN IS PREACHING HATE

He Appeals to Envy, Discontent, Impotence and Incompetence.

Former Postmaster General Under Cleveland Analyzes the Questions Involved and, While Sacrificing No Fundamental Issues, Declares It To Be the Duty of Good Democrats to Vote Against Bryanizing Their Party—Sound Arguments Forcefully Presented.

Don M. Dickinson, who was postmaster general in the first cabinet of President Cleveland and who is still one of Mr. Cleveland's closest personal and political friends, has written the following letter:

"Dear Sir:—Since the adoption of the Kansas City platform and his nomination I have never entertained a thought of voting for Mr. Bryan. I confess, however, that, in common with very many Democrats, I hoped for a time that I might, with a clear conscience, stay away from the polls. But Mr. Bryan's speeches, particularly his later ones, have destroyed that illusion and convinced me that I must vote at the coming election. I criticize no man of different views who can reconcile himself to the other course, but as for me, with the light I have, I am forced to the conviction that I would be a recreant American, false to my country and false to my party as well, if I should take to the woods. I am a Democrat on all the fundamental issues on which our party joined battle in the past with the Republicans, the Whigs and the Federalists—a Democrat without the prefix 'gold,' because my party has been the party of sound finance from Jefferson to Cleveland. I could not be a Republican if I would, and I say the creed of Democracy with all my old-time sincerity and faith. But I recognize severely a vestige of Democratic principle in either the Chicago or Kansas City platforms. The organization is in the hands of the Populists and by these the livery of true Democracy has been stolen in which to serve all the devils that make for social disorder. Mr. Bryan is preaching the gospel of hate. Volting that, he appeals to the envious, the discontented, the improvident, the incompetent and unworthy. But worse still, he endeavors to set friend against friend, neighbor against neighbor, family against family, section against section and nation against nation. He makes the always dangerous appeal to the evil in human nature. His postulates are Boxer and his propaganda is Boxer. He speaks no encouragement to the unsuccessful, but tells him to lay the blame at the door of his more fortunate neighbor, and that his sole remedy is to attack him. He invariably speaks of creditors as 'merciless creditors,' and to the debtor he teaches that his friend who has loaned him money or trusted him is his enemy. When a man fails and becomes despondent he does not seek to inspire him with the American spirit of perseverance; he does not appeal to him to be up and doing and to try again, but he tells him to stop trying, and that the remedy is to pull down the more successful.

"Where is the intelligent citizen who believes in his heart that his Republican neighbors are not as good Americans and as good patriots as himself? And yet, in connection with his making a charge that the Republicans demanded a larger army (an increase, by the way, that was voted for by the Bryan men of the senate and carried in the house with a minority vote of but 33), he has repeatedly said in his public speeches as he said at Indianapolis:

"Why do they want it? So that they can build a fort near every large city and use the army to suppress by force the discontentment that ought to be cured by remedial legislation!"

"This from a candidate for the presidency of the United States, using all the power of his eloquence to carry conviction, especially to our foreign-born workmen, whose votes he solicits! What intelligent citizen loving his country, with a stake in home, in family or in property, however great his sympathy for the unhappy Boers, would, if he could, have had his government aggressively interfere for their protection at the risk of war with Great Britain? We seek no more wars. We want the friendship of all nations. But now, as ever, we stand at peace but ready to battle with any of them for the integrity of our territory, the honor of our flag and the protection of Americans everywhere. Who believes that a man that seriously attacks that policy is a safe man to trust with power in this country?

"Imperialism? The theory of our government, fixed in organic law, cannot be changed in form or in substance unless our congress, with its house fresh from the people, and the supreme court of the United States are parties with the executive to the treasonable conspiracy. With a written constitution, the unique feature of our system of government and its sheet anchor is that great court at Washington, removed by the law of its establishment from partisan conflicts and from the influence of popular clamor, whose chief and exclusive function is to construe that constitution and its distribution of powers, and which can say to the congress: 'Thus far and no farther,' and to the chief executive: 'Thus far and no farther.' This talk about 'despotism' and 'despots' and 'the exercise of royal powers,' governing without the consent of the governed,' 'King George III,' and the like, it not at all new in respect of the government of unauthorized territories of the United States. All these phrases and epithets were used and applied to Jefferson and his administration of the newly acquired Louisiana purchase under the bill signed by him and drawn by Madison. But these Populists and Boxers set up a sort of joss, and then denigrate our saints' calendar by labeling it St. Jefferson.

"The Philippine question is a problem to be solved by the congress so far as the whole territory is concerned. It may be determined to withdraw the flag, as in Cuba. But in no place on earth must that flag be hauled down under fire.

"On the finance question, two or three respected friends use this logic substantially: 'It is true that the Kansas City platform declares for national and commercial dishonor by the "immediate" free coinage of silver at 16 to 1 as legal tender.

"It is true that the candidate who stands upon it has said "if there is any one who believes a gold standard a good thing or that it must be maintained, I warn him not to cast his vote for me, because I promise him that it will not be maintained in this country longer than I am able to get rid of it."

"It is true that the same candidate made it a condition of accepting the nomination that the declaration for free silver should be inserted in the platform. Nevertheless, by reason of Republican legislation and a Republican senate, the candidate we support cannot accomplish the result he declares for.

"Even if it were true, which I deny, that Mr. Bryan, if elected, could not order the payment of the public obligations in silver, or that the mere election of such a man on such a platform would not destroy confidence in the credit and honor of the nation, and before inauguration drive gold out of the country and into hoarding places; nay, even if it were true that such a declaration indorsed by the American people would not entail individual and commercial demoralization, as well as financial distress, still with all deference to men whom I respect, this logic seems to me the basest sophistry. Suppose, in order to get the anarchist vote, the platform had indorsed assassination as a political means, and suppose the friends of the candidate appealed to us for votes on the ground that, although the declaration for assassination was in the platform, yet in fact it could never be made effective because the Republican police protection was too perfect, would we listen to the proposition? Yet the logic is the same, and the analogy should not offend, for the turpitude of the two declarations would differ little in degree in the opinion of the two or three men who are endeavoring to reason themselves into voting for Bryan.

"While the Republicans are responsible for many evils that beset us in our domestic economy, the crisis is such that this is no time to discuss them. The house is on fire; we must help our fellow occupants to put it out, however much we may have differed from them on the policies of housekeeping, and although against our protest they had persisted in the policy of using kerosene to start the kitchen stove. Let no Democrat be influenced by false reports as to the attitude in this crisis of any man whom we have trusted, who, pointing to his record to speak for him now, may deem it unnecessary to speak again. We should never lose faith in the stability of the works of God—least of all in the nobility of them—an honest man. I take my place proudly by the side of Abraham S. Hewitt, under whom I fought in the great battle for Tilden and Democracy in 1876. Waiting in confidence the call of men like him to gather for the reorganization of my party, like him I conceive it to be my solemn duty to vote against Bryanizing the Democratic party and to rid the party and country of Bryanism; and so, like him, in the ranks of the true Democracy, I shall go to the polls and cast my ballot for President McKinley. DON M. DICKINSON.

More Indianapolis Bonds.

The Taggart administration in Indianapolis is begging for the privilege of making another bond sale. The amount is $140,000, which is to be added to $880,000 already issued under the present regime. Do you want a state management of that kind? It is Taggart's city attorney who wants to be governor.

No More Convict Contracts.

It is to the credit of a Republican state administration that at the expiration of present contracts prison labor is not to be used for contract purposes in Indiana.

INDIANA PROPHETS

Accept Election Predictions at What They Are Worth.

The Democratic organization, with its state and county organs, is now endeavoring to create a false hope in the hearts of its followers by promises that Bryan will carry Indiana. It is the usual thing for them to thus prophesy. In what they say this year there is nothing unusual. Here is what the Indianapolis Sentinel said on October 24, 1896:

"Democrats pay no attention to Republican claims. The leaders are trembling in their boots. Indiana is for Bryan by a vote that will drive every gold fraud advocate to cover in November."

Four days before the election there came this effusion:

"The Republican managers who are familiar with the Indiana political situation are in desperate straits. They know that they are defeated."

About this time there were other predictions in the Sentinel. One was: "Vote for McKinley, less money and more panic." History discredits all Bryanite prophecy. Pin not your faith thereto.

His Dernier Resort.

Next year instead of running a farm to afford illustrations in a campaign Bryan may as well commence to farm for a livelihood. He will hardly be interrupted any further by politics.

Gentlemen:—I feel it my duty to express to you my gratitude for what your wonderful remedy has done for me. I was completely run down with a complication of stomach disorders. For ten months I could not work and was treated by three eminent physicians. One insisted upon operating on me, declaring nothing short of an operation would cure me. A friend induced me to try Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin and from the first dose I began to improve, and have not had any trouble since. I have gained 25 pounds in weight and am enjoying the very best of health. I never fail to say a good word for Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin for I know what it has done for me it will do for others.

Gratefully yours,
